Certification of Beneficial Owners for Legal Entity Clients

To help the government fight financial crime, federal regulation requires certain financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. A legal entity includes a corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that is created by a filing of a public document with a Secretary of State or similar office, a general partnership, and any similar business entity formed in The United States of America or a foreign country. A legal entity does not include sole proprietorships, unincorporated associations, or natural persons opening accounts on their own behalf.

- Check this box if the account owner is publically traded on an exchange or subject to ERISA.

Beneficial Owners

Identify each individual who owns—directly or indirectly through any agreement, arrangement, understanding, relationship, or otherwise—25% or more of the equity interests of the legal entity.

- Check this box if no individual owns 25% or more of the legal entity and that you will inform the Fund if/when an individual assumes 25% or more ownership.

The signature appearing to the right of each Authorized Person is that person's signature that Meridian Funds may without inquiry, act upon the instructions (whether oral, written, or provided by wire, telecommunication, or any other process) of any person claiming to be an Authorized Person. Neither the Fund, nor any entity on behalf of which the Meridian Funds is acting, shall be liable for any claims or expenses (including legal fees) for any losses resulting from actions taken upon any instructions believed to be genuine. The Funds may continue to rely on the instructions made by a person claiming to be an Authorized Person until it is informed by amended Application that the person is no longer an Authorized Person and it has a reasonable period of time (not to exceed one week) to process the amended Application. Provisions of this application shall be equally applicable to any successor to Meridian Funds.

Your account may be transferred to the appropriate state if no activity occurs in your account within the time period specified by state law.

4.CERTIFICATION

By execution of this application, the investor represents and warrants that (i) he has the full right, power and authority to make the investment applied for and (ii) he is a natural person of legal age in his State of residence and that all of the information on this application is true and correct. The investor certifies that the taxpayer identification number and tax status set forth in this application is correct. The person or persons, if any, signing on behalf of the investor represent and warrant that they are duly authorized to sign this application and purchase or redeem shares of the fund on behalf of the investor. Each person named in the registration must sign below.

I have read the applicable prospectus(es) and agree to all their terms. I also agree that any shares purchased now or later are and will be subject to the terms of the Funds' current as in effect from time to time.

The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid back-up withholding.

Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number and Signature(s)
Required by Federal tax law to avoid backup withholding

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me, and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Services (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest and dividends; or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).
4. I am exempt from Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA") reporting. If you are exempt from FATCA reporting, please select the appropriate FATCA Exemption Code(s) from the list below and enter them here. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from FATCA backup withholding:
 - i. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2)
 - ii. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities
 - iii. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities
 - iv. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities
 - v. A corporation
 - vi. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States
 - vii. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission
 - viii. A real estate investment trust
 - ix. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940
 - x. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a)
 - xi. A financial institution
 - xii. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian
 - xiii. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

Note to foreign investors: Form W-8BEN must be supplied to ensure applicable backup withholding for your country of residency.

Certification Instructions: You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provisions of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.

10. COST BASIS TAX REPORTING

The Meridian Funds is responsible for tracking and reporting to the IRS your realized gains and losses on covered shares. In general, these are shares acquired on or after January 1, 2012.

The Fund's default tax lot identification method is Average Cost (AC). If you do not wish to use Average Cost, you may change to another method below.

Note: IRS Regulations do not permit the change of the method on a settled trade. I choose a method other than Average Cost, as follows:

- FIFO (FI) – First in, First out
- HIFO (HI) – Highest in, First out
- LIFO (LI) – Last in, First out
- LOFO (LO) – Lowest Cost, First Out
- HILT (H1) - Highest Cost Long Term, First Out
- HIST (H2) – Highest Cost Short Term, First Out
- LILT (L1) – Lowest Cost Long Term, First Out
- LIST (L2) – Lowest Cost Short Term, First Out
- Specific Identification (SL) – I will identify the type of cost basis at the time of redemption

If no option is selected above, your account will use the Fund's default of Average Cost. If you are unsure of which tracking method is right for your personal tax situation, please consult a tax adviser.
